

Mr. Christopher Papachastas, born in Piraeus Greece in 1981, graduated at the Department of Management & Business Administration.

From a young age he participated actively in the family-owned business, gaining experience of each department of the company. He is now the managing director of Poseidon Marine Supplies, one of the biggest ship supplying companies in Greece, and a trustworthy FRS service supplier.

In 2013 he managed to expand the company's business in Cyprus facilitating a service station in Limassol port. In 2018 he facilitated another service station in the port of Rotterdam in Netherlands to bring the company's services closer to the needs of the vessels calling the Benelux area. His latest achievement is a newly established station in Houston, Texas.

He has a deep know-how of the marine business, and he is known for being very perspective about new technologies in marine industry. He is an ambassador of fair business and has an eco-friendly point of view.

From 2018 to present he is elected as vice president of the Panhellenic Ship Suppliers and Exporters Association, promoting the interests of its members.

He is married and father of 2 children.